

Provisions on Administration of Administrative Licensing for New Varieties of Food-related Products

MOH Circular No.25-2011

Article 1 These Provisions are formulated according to the Food Safety Law of the People's Republic of China and its Implementation Rules to regulate the safety evaluation and licensing of new varieties of food-related products.

Article 2 New varieties of food-related products described in this Provisions refer to those new materials, new raw materials or new additives of food packaging materials, containers, detergents, disinfectants and tools and equipment for food production and operation, including:

- 1) Food packaging materials, containers and their additives that are not included in the relevant food safety national standard or not announced to be approved by the MOH;
- 2) Food packaging materials, containers and their additives that require expansion of the scope of use or increase of dosage;
- 3) New raw materials that are not included in the list of raw materials of food-applicable disinfectants and the list of raw materials of food-applicable detergents;
- 4) New materials or new additives of tools and equipment for food production and operation that come into direct contact with food.
